SPECIAL SERVICES EASTER SUNDAY AT DAYTONA CHURCHES

EASTER SERMONS AND SPECIAL MUSIC WILL BE FEATURES OF
THE SERVICES AT VARIOUS CHURCHES TOMORROW.

An Easter sermon and special Easter music will be features of the morning and evening services at the Congregational church tomorrow, Easter Sunday. The Easter exercises of the Sunday school will take place tomorrow at the regular Sunday school hour, in the social hall of the church. Through its pastor, Rev. Willam J. Drew, the Congregational church extends a cordial welcome to all for each of these services.

A violin solo by A. E. Donnelly will be one of the features.

The Holy communion service at St.
Mary's Episcopal church will be held at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.
Rev. Robt. McKay officiating. At 11:00 o'clock there will be the usual prayer service, at which time the church quartette and chorus choir will render a program of special Easter music. Sunday school exercises will be held at 10:00 o'clock in guild hall.

Rev. S. L. Jackson, pastor of the First Christian church, will take for the subject of his Easter morning sermon, "The Thorn, the Crown and the Easter Lily." The children's Easter exercises will take place Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and at both the morning and evening services music appropriate for the day will be furnished by the church choir. Rev.
Dr. Jackson extends a warm welcome to all at each of these services.

An Easter sermon and special Easter music will be a part of the worship at the Methodist church on Easter Sunday, together with a baptismal service Sunday morning. In the evening there will be an appropriate musical service by the choir.
Rev. J. H. Elder extends a hearty invitation to all, and is thoroughly in sympathy with the "Go-to-Church-Sunday" movement.

At the Baptist church tomorrow the services will be devoted in the morning to the thought of the Easter occasion. The pastor will preach an Easter sermon upon the topic, "Resurrection Evidences." The choir will render special music at both morning and evening worship. The anthem of the morning will be, "They Have Taken Away My Lord," by Stainer.
Mrs. Jean Neville will sing the offertory selection, "The Lord Is Risen," Sullivan.

The ordinance of the Lord's Supper will be administered at the close of the morning sermon. Mrs. W. M.
Anderson will speak for a few minutes at the close about her work as

THE DAILY NEWS WILL BULLETIN BY ROUNDS BIG FIGHT AT HAVANA

The Daily News has arranged for a special cable service from Havana at the time the Willard-Johnson championship battle takes place in that city next Monday. The details of the fight, by rounds, will be received here within a few minutes after each round is finished, and bulletins will be posted in front of the Gazette-News company's building on Beach street.
The fight is scheduled to take place at about 12:00 o'clock, central time, and the general public is cordially invited to come and watch the bullet-tins as they come in.

A report of the fight will, of course, be carried in Monday afternoon's edition of the Daily News.

The paper may go to press an hour later Monday afternoon, as it will hardly be possible to get the detailed story from Havana in time to close the forms at the usual hour, 3:00 o'clock.

Johnson gained the heavyweight title in 1908 when he defeated Tommy Burns in Sydney, Australia, and since that time he has easily defended it.
In order to wrest the title from the negro, Willard must accomplish a feat no other white fighter has been able to perform during the last seven years. The public is with Willard.
Jeffries, Moran and Flynn have all given way to Johnson's prowess with the gloves, and the followers of the fighting game believe Johnson has ruled long enough.

Willard is a giant physically and one tremendous advantage he has over his opponent is a longer reach of inches. Physicians state that Willard is in the pink of condition, while there is a slight question as to Johnson's fitness.

All votes in the Contest must be cast by 6:00 o'clock Monday evening at the Daily News office.

THIRTY-EIGHT BOARDERS NOW IN THE COUNTY JAIL

DELAND, April 3.—In the Volusia county jail just now are 36 prisoners.
Seven of these are white, and the remainder negroes. The latest arrival is Chas. Bradford, colored, charged with carrying unlawful weapons, concealed. He was remanded to the criminal court by Justice M. G.
Rowe.

Two negroes, under conviction for murder in the first degree, are among the inmates of the jail. Appeals for the convicted men are awaiting disposal by the supreme court.

BROOKLYNITES BADE DAYTONA REGRETFUL FAREWELL THIS A. M.

Manager Wilbert Robinson and his band of pennant-chasing Brooklyn Su-perbas, who have been busily engaged in conditioning themselves since their arrival on the first of March, left for Jacksonville this morning. From the state metropolis Robbie and his pals will wander along the right of way as far as Richmond, where they will stop for a pair of battles with the International leaguers of that city, following which they will try conclusions with the Washington Americans.

This afternoon the Superbas will endeavor to throw the hooks into the Jacksonville South Atlantic leaguers, up at Barr's field, Jacksonville, and as it is the first foreign game of the year with a professional team, Brooklyn (and Daytona) will bend every effort to win. However, the Washington series is the one that trolley dodgers want the most, and Uncle Wilbert will probably send the first string of twirlers against the American league team.

Manager Robinson seemed to express the sentiments of the team and of the "war" correspondents who accompanied the team, when he said:
"We've had a fine time down here this spring; the weather's been fair; the people of the city have been exceedingly hospitable; and we're all leaving here looking forward to next year's training season." Mr. Robinson and the members of his team are an exceedingly gentlemanly band of men, and it is with regret that their departure is chronicled. But they will be back next year, and once more the merry "whang" of seasoned ash meeting horseshoe squarely, will ring over Ebbets field. Until then we will have to follow their fortunes second-hand.

SEVERAL TO BE TRIED FOR LIVES AT NEXT TERM COURT

DELAND, April 3.—When the next term of circuit court convenes at the county seat, this month, several cases involving capital punishment will come up for trial.

Charged with criminal assault upon a colored girl, Tate Smallwood will be tried for his life unless the charge is changed to assault with intent to rape. This is likely, as the girl has died since the assault was made.
Smallwood is also accused of attempting a similar crime on the person of a sister of the dead girl.

For killing Willard Monroe with an axe, Walter Finch, a DeLand negro, will be tried for murder.

About four years ago John Robinson is alleged to have assassinated another negro at Orange City, and Richard Zow is charged with murdering a negro at Orange Hammock. Robinson and Zow are also to be tried.

LOCAL ELKS HOPE TO BRING 1916 FLORIDA STATE MEETING HERE

A NUMEROUS DELEGATION FROM DAYTONA LODGE WILL GO TO PALATKA AND PRESENT CITY'S CLAIMS.

Daytona wants the 1916 convention of the Florida State Elks' association.
That is, Daytona wants the convention if the local Elks and all their friends may properly be spoken of as Daytona; and it surely can be spoken that way, because nearly every blessed soul in this town is either an Elk or a friend of an Elk.

The eleventh annual convention of the Florida State Elks' association for 1915 is to be held at Palatka this year. It begins next Tuesday, April 6th, and continues to and including Thursday, April 8th. A big delegation will be there from Daytona, if all go who now think they are going. It is planned to make a strong pull for Daytona, and there is ample justification for the belief that the "Hello, Bill" bunch will head this way next spring, along with the "money changers" (popularly called bankers).

When interrogated concerning the plan to have the next convention of Florida Elks come here, Exalted Ruler W. M. Hankins, of the local lodge, said: "I see no good reason why Daytona should not land the plum.
We are conveniently located; we have a numerous and enthusiastic membership; we have one of the largest and one of the most complete homes in the state, and the boys all seem very anxious for the meeting to come here.
And Daytona will do a good job of entertaining, if given the opportunity."

Geo. F. Crouch, one of the most prominent of the local Elks, and who is to be installed as exalted ruler in a few days, said when questioned about the 1916 convention: "I think we ought to have it. So far as I know, No. 1141 was and is the first lodge to make a bid for the next annual meeting following that at Palatka. This, coupled with the fact that we are well prepared to take care of such a gathering, should enable us to make a strong showing. Daytona was the meeting place for the state association in 1910, and while it was not so largely attended as some have been, it is generally regarded as one of the most successful in the history of the association. I certainly do heartily favor the effort to bring the 1916 convention here, and I believe we can do it."

Palatka has made elaborate preparation to entertain the Elks next week. The following excerpt taken from an article recently printed in the Palatka Post will give an idea of what is being done in the Putnam capital for the deflection of the visitors:

"Beautiful and inspiring Old Glory is everywhere being unfurled to Palatka's delightful and invigorating breezes; 'Hello Bill' purple elk heads on white background, and other P. P.
O. E. banners are being made centerpieces of tasteful decorations; red white and blue bunting is being twined and intertwined about pillar and post; 'Welcome' streamers and strings of electric light bulbs are being run lengthwise and crosswise above thoroughfares, all in preparation for the state convention of Elks to be held in the Gem City next week, April 6, 7 and 8.

"Contracts amounting to hundreds of dollars have been let for decorations and those engaged with the work will be busy until the day preceding the opening exercises, getting these flags, banner, and colors properly arranged. When finished surely Palatka will be in real gala attire—prettier than she has ever been before.

"Letters are coming from the south, the north, the east and the west of the Peninsular state, asking for hotel reservations and for information, and tellings of big delegations coming to participate in the festivities and in the sessions of the state association, thus assuring the local Elks and Palatka of a real concourse of people during the convention days.

"To stimulate interest in the parade, always a feature of any convention, the parade committee has offered a silver cup to the lodge having in the line of march the largest uniformed delegation. As this cup is a beauty and all of the lodges of Florida Elksdom have been notified by letter of the prize, the parade should be unusually attractive. Palatka lodge will, of course, not compete for the cup.

"A feature of the parade, and also during convention days, will be that all members of the local lodge of Elks have been requested to dress in white hat with purple hatband, dark blue or black coat, white trousers, white shoes, purple socks and purple tie. Letters to this effect have

DAYTONA BEACH.

DAYTONA BEACH, April 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Pierce, Miss Emma Nelson, who is with them and Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, of Daytona, left Wednesday morning on a trip to Lake Alfred, making the journey in Mr. Pierce's automobile. They expect to return home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Farnham, the former of whom is professor in the Oswego Normal school of New York state, were welcome visitors at the winter home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Reed, Thursday, having made the trip over from Lake Helen, where they are spending the winter, for the express purpose of seeing Mrs. Reed and family. Mrs. Reed and Professor Farnham and wife were friends 40 years ago before she went west, since which time they had never met. Naturally, they had a good deal to talk over.

C. K. Barnhart has the contract for making considerable improvement on the Palm, Mrs. Mary Moon's boarding house on Seabreeze avenue. The house has been raised two feet and a concrete block foundation laid. The interior is being remodeled, and the rooms will be freshened with paint and calcimine. Mrs. Moon's many friends and patrons will be glad to note this indication of the success and prosperity of a hostess so kind and deserving.

Miss Marie Erway, of Courtland, N. Y., who arrived recently, is located at the Hibbard home on Live Oak street.

Mrs. R. A. Bush, season guest at the Palm, left Wednesday on her return to Gloversville, N. Y.

Mrs. John F. Morrissey, who is now in Brooklyn, N. Y., where she was called by the illness of one of her twin brothers, Matthew Joyce, has been doubly afflicted in the death of the other brother, Martin Joyce, who passed over within a week of the death of Matthew, both dying of arterial troubles. Dr. Morrissey was not well enough to make the trip with Mrs. Morrissey, who is expected home this week.

The W. H. Mannins public garage on Atlantic avenue, has been leased for a year by O. T. Stonestreet and A. B. Miller, of the firm of Stonestreet & Miller, of Athens, Ala. Mr. Stonestreet has leased Mrs. S. F. Rogers' cottage on Grandview avenue for a year; his family consisting of his wife, a daughter and son, arrived yesterday and will take possession this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Carner, of Sandwich, Ill., located for the winter at the Orr apartment house, left Monday on their return home.

A very pleasant meeting of the library association Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Cora Powell on Grandview avenue. As usual, an enjoyable program was followed by refreshments. This was expected to be the last meeting of this season, but it was decided to hold one more meeting before final adjournment for the summer. The silver offering was $4.20.

W. B. Reed's winter home on the Halifax is in the hands of the painters and decorators to be freshened up, exterior and interior, and left in first class condition against his return next fall.

Miss Franz Sparber, Stetson music student, came over from DeLand on Friday to meet and assist in entertaining her cousin, Earl Jackson, who was house guest at the Sparber home on Grandview avenue for a short time. Miss Sparber returned to Stetson on Monday.

Miss Mabel McKenney, of Chattanooga, Tenn., has purchased of W. J. Braddock, cashier of the East Coast bank, the south half of his lot on Atlantic avenue, ocean front. Miss McKenney has been spending part of the winter in the Atlantic apartment house on Grandview avenue. Miss McKenney will probably build next fall. Miss McKenney and her mother, Mrs. Carrie Rape left the first of this week on their return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Maher and T. W. Beach enjoyed a few days' camping trip to the Knox & Beed's orange grove, making the trip in Mr. Beach's boat.

A large party from the Seaside Inn made the trip to the Tomoka Monday in one of the Nutting excursion boats.

The card party at the Inn, Tuesday night, was a well-attended, pleasant social affair.

The Seaside Inn will remain open until May 1st. Quite a number of the winter guests are here yet. The following are noted among the Tuesday arrivals: W. E. McClellan and wife, Owatona, Minn.; Jos. Johnson and wife, London, Canada, and the following automobile party from DeLand: J. B. DeHuy, H. Baguely, F. R. Osborne, Mrs. J. P. Brown and daughter, Miss Dorothy Brown, Milwaukee.

Mrs. J. L. Brennen and son, John M. Brennen, and Miss Cain, who are spending the season at the Bide-a-Wee cottage, spent a couple of days this week in Orlando. Mr. Brennen, who came here for his health is very much encouraged over the improvement made.

Mr. and Mrs. Chambers, of Youngstown, O., who spent part of the season in DeLand, came over from the county seat and are located in Mrs. Ainsworth's cottage on North Atlantic avenue.

The marriage of Miss Goldee Fix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Fix, of Daytona Beach and Indiana, will be of interest to those who are acquainted with the family. Miss Fix was married to Glen Stokes shortly after her return to Indiana, March 15th. She spent part of the season with her parents at the Indiana house on Atlantic avenue.

The last concert of the season was enjoyed by the guests and a large number of cottagers at the Kentucky house Sunday night. The music was furnished by the Willson orchestra, assisted by members of the Nautilus orchestra. Miss Olmstead, of New York, the charming young grandniece and house guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Darby, was soloist of the evening; her sweet and well-trained voice was greatly enjoyed by all present. Among the selections were: "My Heart Faithful," by Batch; "Dein Gedeuk' Ich Margaretha," and "Du Fragst Mich Taglich," by Meyer-Helmond, and "Maman, dites-moi," old French.

Mrs. Florence McGee, of Bloomfield, Ill., friend of Mrs. Weston, who has been at the Thompson apartment house on Seabreeze avenue, left Tuesday on her return home.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE SANS SOUCI CLUB

Mrs. Raynor entertained the Sans Souci club Thursday afternoon at her pleasant home on the river front, Daytona Beach. This being the annual meeting the following officers were elected:

Mrs. Henry Mitchell, president; Mrs. N. C. Sears, first vice-president; Mrs. W. B. Reed, second vice-president; Mrs. J. P. Esch, secretary; Miss Kathryn Thorp, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. A. Coburn, treasurer; Mrs. J. R. Wilcox, auditor.

After the business session Mrs. Mitchell read an excellent paper on "Washington Irving."

The club will have its annual boat trip and picnic at the Inlet, April 10th. The hostess served dainty refreshments during the social hour.

*TURKEY SUPPER—Guild hall, Orange avenue, Monday, April 5th, 5:00 to 7:30. Price 50c.

Geo. L. Fitzgerald, of Philadelphia, Pa., who owns residence property on the river front at Holly Hill, and has been spending the season with friends in that town, left Friday on his return to the Quaker City. Mr. Fitzgerald expects to leave Philadelphia early in May with other members of Lulu Temple, Order of the Mystic Shrine, to attend the Shrine convention in Seattle, Wash., and also visit the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco. He expects to come to Daytona as usual next fall and spend the winter.

Mrs. Mary Lawson, who had been visiting her aunt and cousin, Mrs. William Gardner, and Miss Elizabeth Gardner, at their home on Myrtle avenue, returned to Paisley, Friday, and will go north later to her home in Chicago, Ill. Curtis Gardner took Mrs. Lawson to Paisley in the car, being joined at DeLand by his brother William, who is taking a special course at Stetson university.

WESTERN UNION HAS SPECIAL BLANKS FOR EASTER GREETING
The success which attended the introduction by the Western Union Telegraph company of specially designed blanks suited for conveying Christmas and New Year's greetings has prompted the company to issue a specially designed and illuminated blank, which the public will find a most appropriate and pleasing conveyance for Easter greetings to their friends and relations at a distance.

Miss A. R. Kummick, manager of the local Western Union office, announces that she has received a liberal supply of the new forms, and patrons of the office have only to request the use of special Easter blanks to be thus favored.

All votes in the Contest must be cast by 6:00 o'clock Monday evening at the Daily News office.

THE BIG HOTELS ARE CLOSING FOR SEASON

ANNUAL EASTER EGG HUNT AT FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The annual Easter egg hunt at the First Christian church will be held next Monday afternoon from 3:00 to 5:00 o'clock. This custom was established a few years ago when Mr. and Mrs. Jackson located with the church. All boys and girls are invited.

*For Rent—Two new modern flats, furnished; large front and rear porches; rent low for summer; wish to rent within 5 days. Lillian L. Bailey, 109-111 Live Oak ave. 199-3t-eod

L. D. Curran, of Elmira, N. Y., who is spending the season as usual at Daytona Beach, was a caller at the Daily News and Gazette-News office Saturday morning in company with his friend, Bert B. High, of Detroit, Mich., whom he has promised to show some real fishing while he is here. Mr. and Mrs. High are guests at the Breakers hotel, Daytona Beach, having arrived Wednesday of this week from points further south where they had been spending the season. Mr. High expressed himself as being very much pleased with Daytona and the peninsula towns of Daytona Beach and Seabreeze, which he is visiting for the first time.

SEABREEZE.

SEABREEZE, April 2.—Rev. Elmer Willis Serl will take for his topic on Sunday morning at the Tourist church, "Have I Risen From the Dead Today?" The church will be handsomely decorated for the Easter service, and special music by the Willson orchestra with Miss Peirson as soloist will add to the interest in an eloquent discourse.

Services will close at the Tourist church for the season, April 11th. The popular pastor, Rev. Mr. Serl, goes from Seabreeze to Philadelphia, Pa., to accept the pastorate of the Swarthmore church. He will carry with him the best wishes of a host of friends here and everywhere, whom he has made during the season among the attendants at the Tourist.

Mr. and Mrs. Wortley, of Ypsilanti, Mich., regular winter visitors, who have many friends here, are pleasantly located at Seminole Lodge for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Wortley are late comers but also late goers, and generally remain south long enough to get the very cream of the spring weather.

Mrs. B. B. Baggett and son, Gordon, "came across" and spent Thursday with her mother, Mrs. C. F. Burgman and family on Ocean boulevard.

Judge W. D. Edson and wife, of Duluth, Minn., who have been spending some time with Mr. Allen and daughter, Mrs. Williams, on Wild Olive avenue, left yesterday on their return north.

E. Weldon has moved his upholstery business from Volusia avenue, Daytona, to North Halifax avenue, Seabreeze. He has opened up business, in the south side, a new fire-proof garage, which he has just completed, and will add automobile covering to his work.

The many friends of Dr. A. T. Bigelow will be very glad to learn that the doctor is recovering as rapidly as could be expected from an operation at the Klock hospital, Daytona, which was performed last week. A close friend when told by the nurse that Dr. Bigelow was beginning to tell jokes, said: "This is the best sign yet. He must be nearly normal."

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Darby, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Chamberlin, and Mr. Darby's niece, Miss Olmstead, of New York city, attended an oyster roast at Port Orange, Tuesday evening. The drive was made in Mr. Darby's car, and was greatly enjoyed, the evening being bright and balmy.

Messrs. L. and W. A. Merryday spent Thursday in Palatka on business, looking after their building interests there.

Mrs. Murphy and Mr. Townsend, who came over from Orange Mills last week to drive her new Ford back, made the trip in less than six hours.

Mrs. Willingmyer and sister, Miss Jackson, who were spending a short time on North Atlantic avenue, left Monday. The former returns to Middleport, N. Y., and Miss Jackson to school at Athens, Ga.

Mrs. S. W. Juday, Mr. and Mrs. Painter and Mr. and Mrs. Haynes, winter tourists and residents on the ocean front, returned Tuesday from touring the southern part of the state. They visited Fort Lauderdale, Miami, Palm Beach and other intermediate points. They made the trip by rail and enjoyed the outing very much.

Mrs. Juday, who has been spending the season with Mrs. Geo. W. Buckner, and has made many pleasant acquaintances during her stay, leaves next week on her return to Indianapolis, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Guff, who are located in the Wakefield cottage on the beach, leave Friday on their return to Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Middleton, of Daytona, are spending the week at the Middleton home on Palmetto avenue.

Mrs. Gerard, who came up from the southern part of the state and was at Dixie Lodge for a week, left Thursday for her home in Savannah, Ga.

Although the tourists are leaving in large numbers, business at the Princess Islena continues good, and this popular hotel will remain open as usual, until May 1st. The outdoor sports of clock golf, tennis and croquet are very popular these sunny, balmy days.

The following arrivals at the Princess Islena within the last few days are noted: C. J. Hardy, Bangor, Me.; Mrs. L. B. C. Silt, R. M. Caldwell, H. A. Caldwell, Winter Park; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Johnson, St. Paul, Minn.; Mrs. O'Brien and daughter, Plattsburg, W. Va.; Samuel Robinson, Pittsburg, Pa.; Mrs. William D. Sammis, Miss Helen D. Sammis, Minneapolis, Minn.

The last meeting of the ladies' society of the Tourist church was held at the home of Mrs. T. R. Simpson on North Halifax avenue, Wednesday afternoon. At a lengthy and important business meeting, which preceded the program, the season's work and all unfinished business was closed. It was decided to purchase a piano for church use with the funds on hand after all outstanding bills had been paid. The following committee was named and empowered to secure an instrument, and dispose, if possible, of the second-hand organ now in use in the church: Mrs. E. J. Ranslow, Mrs. G. W. Abell, Prof. C. L. Watkins, and Mrs. L. W. Lott. Following the business session the company was refreshed with a delicious punch, and an entertaining musical and literary program was given by Mrs. Abell, Miss Peirson, Mrs. Lott and Miss Varney. Just before the last good-byes were said, by special and unanimous request, Miss Peirson sang "A Perfect Day" to the great enjoyment of all present.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE ON FLAGLER SYSTEM

LEAVING TIME OF NEW YORK AND KEY WEST TRAIN TWENTY-ONE MINUTES EARLIER THAN AT PRESENT.

A change of schedule on the Flagler system which will be in effect next Monday has as its most important feature to people leaving this city for eastern points the advance in the time of departure from Daytona of train No. 86, the "Oversea Limited," which is the most popular train with tourists and winter residents who are now returning north. The leaving time of this train since January 4th, has been 10:01 a. m., but under the new schedule it will leave Daytona at 9:40 a. m., or 21 minutes earlier than at present.

Train No. 87, New York, Palm Beach and Miami, made its last trip south Friday, and the corresponding train, No. 88, will make the last trip north on Sunday. No. 87 has been leaving here at 7:51 p. m., and No. 88 at 8:32 a. m.

Under the new schedule train No. 37 will leave Daytona at 12:39 a. m. instead of 1:15 a. m., as heretofore, southbound, while No. 38 will continue on the old time of 4:35 a. m., northbound. These trains are Key West Express with Washington.

No. 29, which has been leaving Daytona, southbound, at 1:38 p. m., will, from Monday on, leave at 1:34 p. m., or four minutes earlier. There is no change in No. 30, leaving here at 3:45 p. m., northbound. These are the local trains.

There is no change in No. 85, which leaves Daytona southbound at 5:10 p. m.

Mrs. Charles A. Hinsch and children, Miss Mary and Charles A. Hinsch, Jr., season guests at the Clarendon hotel, departed Friday for their home in Cincinnati, Ohio. Mr. Hinsch, who is president of the First-Third National bank of Cincinnati, spent six weeks with his family at the Clarendon but returned to the Queen City about two weeks ago. Mrs. Hinsch has girlhood friends from Cincinnati living in this vicinity.

SPECIAL SERVICES FOR EASTER SUNDAY

director of the National Home Mission and Rescue association. The evening worship at 7:30 will begin with a song service. The pastor will preach the sermon intended for last Sunday evening, "Your Husband's Best Friend." The usual illustrated sermon for the children will be given in the morning. The Bible school will meet at 9:45 and a real welcome will be given to all ages. Classes to suit all from the tiny kindergartner to the adult class. In the evening the choir will render the anthem, "Hosanna," by Granier. Mrs. Neville will sing the solo. Mr. Manchester will sing as the offertory selection, "Behold the Place Where They Laid Him," by Gabriel.

At the business meeting of the B. Y. P. U. society the past week the following officers were elected for the next six months: President, Miss Margaret Brokaw; vice-president, Hearst McClellan; secretary, Miss Grace Otis; treasurer, Miss Gretchen Smith.
